

I'm Clara

For years, my job kept me from being with my family. Then, I built a workshop in my home where I could work with my husband and have more time to spend with our children. But other parents from our village still needed to travel far away to earn enough income to feed their families. So, we invited them to work with us in our workshop. Your purchase helps parents stay with their children in Guatemala.

Thank you!

TRADES of HOPE