

I'm Ranjana

I grew up in a small rural village in Nepal where women still suffer from gender discrimination, child marriage, and the dowry system. I moved to the city for independence and a better education. I love learning, so I learned traditional Nepalese felt crafting to support myself. Your purchase helps me fulfill my dreams of becoming a social entrepreneur and helps other women overcome discrimination by providing them with dignified jobs.

Thank you!

TRADES of HOPE