SHOP TO FIGHT Human Trafficking

Women who are rescued from human trafficking make our jewelry from East Asia. What that means for you is the opportunity to help women experience healing, a dignified income, and a new sense of self-esteem! And the real value for you is knowing the woman who made your accessories is walking in freedom every time you put them on.

Mae Lee says, "When I was 15 years old, my mother needed money, so I was trafficked to Greece. This Artisan community stepped in and offered me a new beginning." If new beginnings for survivors of human trafficking is something you'd like to be a part of, shop our Gold Croissant Hoops, Aqua Huggie Hoops, and Serafina Necklace!

I come from a small family and was raised in one of the most dangerous areas in Port-au-Prince. I cannot imagine what life would be like without my work. I would have to depend on the help of others. I love when I hear there are new orders and that I'm able to come to work the next day! Trades of Hope and this Artisan community have helped by providing jobs!
