CREATING JOBS FOR Women With Disabilities

"It is not good for people who are disabled in Kenya. They are treated poorly. It is so hard. But I'm happy doing this work because I feel free. I finally feel like a person! I can even send my adopted daughter and orphaned niece to school! Your purchase supports us and allows more people who are disabled to stop begging on the street like I did."

Fashion as a Force for Good

Create Jobs for Women Like Sa in Thailand

"I love doing something that gives me freedom and independence. I grew up in a small town where many had limited ideas of how a girl should act. Now, I'm the main purchaser of materials and make decisions! I love making a difference and being creative."
