real women leading their families out of extreme poverty & human trafficking

I came to this Artisan community with no skills. However, I saw many women just like me making beautiful leather handbags. There are many good memories since I started working with this artisan community - from financial help to mentorship - however, I was very happy when I was selected to be a Trades of Hope Girl. I hope Trades of Hope handbags tell my story to the world. My story is about true empowerment and how I am fighting all odds with the right people on my side.

I was rescued by the National Police anti-trafficking unit. I was not happy about my rescue at first as I did not understand. The father of my baby was awaiting trial for his crimes. I never really understood what love was, I felt that I didn't deserve love.

MY LIFE HAS VALUE

I want to provide the best life possible for my son. My dream is to become a lawyer and have a family, so that my son can experience love and a real family.
